Caledonia Community Schools Names Brent Huck Assistant Director of Teaching and Learning

Caledonia, MI – Caledonia Community Schools is pleased to announce Brent Huck as the district's new Assistant Director of Teaching and Learning.

Huck has served as principal of Caledonia Elementary School since joining CCS in 2020. During his time at Caledonia Elementary, he has focused on building a collaborative school culture where students feel safe, valued, and connected. In 2023, Caledonia Elementary was recognized as a National Blue Ribbon School.

Before joining CCS, Huck served as a sixth-grade teacher and principal at Bursley Elementary School in Jenison Public Schools and as a sixth-grade teacher at Milan Middle School. He holds a bachelor's degree in sociology and a master's degree in educational studies from the University of Michigan, along with his administration certification from Grand Valley State University.

"Brent has been an outstanding leader at Caledonia Elementary, and we're excited for him to bring that experience to a districtwide role," said Superintendent Dirk Weeldreyer. "He understands our students, our staff, and our community, and his collaborative approach to leadership will be a tremendous asset as we continue strengthening teaching and learning across CCS."

Huck will remain principal of Caledonia Elementary until an interim principal is in place and will assist with the transition. An interim principal will lead the school for the remainder of the 2026-27 school year, with a full search for the permanent position planned for the spring.

Please join us in congratulating Brent Huck on his new role with Caledonia Community Schools.
